

CanCon cheese, you may find something to enjoy here. —AW

movie briefs

BURN NOTICE: Local filmmakers Soren Johnstone and Michael Babiarz's feature, Play With Fire, makes its Vancouver debut on Thursday, Nov. 4, at Pat's Pub (403 E. Hastings), 9pm, as part of a B.C. launch tour. Admission is by donation. The story of a 28-year-old stuck in a dead-end town (Trail, B.C., to be exact), the moody, mill-town epic took home the award for Best Cinematography at 2009's ReelHeART International Film Festival in Toronto. A second screening is scheduled for Sunday, December 5, at Rickshaw Theatre (254 E. Hastings), 8pm, to be followed by performances by the local musicians who scored the film, including Jesse Rankin, St. Just Vigilantes, Harma White, Aaron Read, Makeout Videotape, and Marc Baril. $10 at the door.

Send your tips to artseditor@westender.com